F.4 Geog X1 students Field Trip to Cheung Chau to study the physical environment of Cheung Chau

F.4 X1 students were studying the formation of Tors
F.4 X1 students were studying what type of weathering it was.
F.4 X1 students were studying how the beach was formed.
The teacher of Caritas Chan Chun Ha Field Studies Centre were having debriefing with our students.
After discussion, each group had oral presentation in front of the whole class.